new exhibits

What makes a city a city? A number of inhabitants, buildings and a government are necessary, but the neighborhoods that make up a city are what give it character and flavor. Uptown Gallery's new April exhibit, "Urban Neighborhoods", is all about that flavor. Curator Joe Robertson selected images of urban neighborhoods from around the world, painted mostly by Virginia artists.

Ted Salins of Randolph-Macon College will judge the work and award prizes in a gallery talk on April 5th at 6:30 PM.
